Ads must be received by Fri., January 20

Newspaper in Education Week Classroom Classifieds are available without charge for teachers who want to send a personal message to their students through the classified pages of the Republican Herald.

Each teacher is welcome to submit one ad, not to exceed the spaces on the form. The ads will be scattered throughout the classified section of the Republican Herald during NIE Week, Mon., March 6 through Fri., March 10. No particular day can be guaranteed.

Please follow these guidelines in writing your messages:

1. Identify the school, grade, and class to which you are targeting your message. For example, "Tri-Valley 8th grade history classes: Bring in this ad for a no homework pass tomorrow. Mr. Quinlan."
2. Please do not send in mathematical equations or foreign-language messages. We are unable to typeset these. Cryptograms are okay. Please include the answer for us so we can ensure that no typos are made. The answer will not be printed in the ad.
3. Check your spelling. Words like "ad" and "add" are often used incorrectly.
4. Identify yourself in the ad. Your ad will be only one of about 400 classroom classifieds that week, scattered among the thousands of regular classified ads.
5. No abbreviations will be printed please spell out all words in your ad.
6. Please type or print clearly.

Allow one letter per line, and skip a line for each break between words. You need not allow a line for punctuation marks.

The following information is necessary, it will not be printed in your ad

Teacher's name _____

Grade/subject _____

School _____ School phone _____

School Address _____
