

I'm a Reader!

Contract for Newspaper in Education Week 2017 Read-at-Home Challenge

Reading is important! The International Reading Association, the National Council for the Social Studies, the Newspaper Association of America, their state affiliates, and The Republican-Herald all celebrate the habit of reading newspapers. I want to celebrate with them. I want to sharpen my skills as a reader, and to make myself smarter at using information. As I read the newspaper for at least 10 minutes each day during Newspaper in Education Week, I will initial below. I also plan to spend more time reading books, magazines and other periodicals. I shall try to help others understand why the ability to read is so important. Reading is power, and readers are leaders!
